 AND 794, OF THE U. S. CODE, AS AMENDED. ITS TRANSMISSION OR REVEL-

Since 24 April 1953, two or three delegates of the East German Ministry of Foreign Affairs have been attached to the ADN Bureau. [ ] they were nothing but couriers charged with the mission to take specific material to the Ministry of Foreign Affairs immediately after its arrival. On 24 April, the persons involved took any incoming notice connected with the ratification of the EDC Treaty to the Foreign Ministry immediately after its arrival. The news service of the ADN has so far not been controlled by the Ministry of Foreign Affairs. However, this ministry and the office of the Minister President stressed that each report issued by ADN was official and that this fact had to be borne in mind in the wording of every report. This makes objective reporting very difficult because "objectivism" is one of the objectionable trends in East Germany. Editors of ADN have the greatest difficulty in publishing a report prior to learning the official line taken with regard to the problem concerned.
